We come and hunt you up, then you give us your word of coming down to the office and the last till we see you a goin' to get mad if we turn your bill over to a collector. Do as you would have us do to you if you owe us we pay it, so please pay us. You have to pay the white man for his paper and then can't get your name in it, only when you have done something bad.

Dr. Theodore Smith is a hustler. Less than two years ago he began business with a stock of goods valued at less than $500; to-day his stock will invoice more than $3,000. The Doctor's store is being patronized by some of the best negroes in Kansas City. His business is flourishing and continues to increase. This goes to prove that the article which came out in the "Star" a few months ago stating that negroes would not patronize one another in business is absolutely false.
